The Faculty of this conference are the luminaries and need no introduction. Their pioneering work has been acclaimed globally and is sacred in the oncology circles. The academic extravaganza shall be extra-ordinary and this feast amidst beautiful, scenic and mesmerising vale of Kashmir shall be really adorable.

Kashmir, the paradise on earth of which priests have prophesized, the writers have eulogised, visitors written unraptured travelogues, poets have sung and emperors have sighed, "Only Kashmir".

We shall try everything to make your stay memorable and evocative!
